- JAMES COURT TOURS

THE GRAND BRITANNIA 2021 TOUR

Isle of Skye, Scotland - Day 18

The Grand Britannia is probably the most comprehensive tour of England, Scotland and Wales that is available.

The length of the tour enables a more thorough investigation of many areas than is usually possible, including several of Britain's most beautiful landscapes. As well it enables the tour to proceed at a more leisurely pace than many other tours.

Roman Camp Country House Hotel, Scotland - Day 16

Major cities and centres of great historical and cultural interest such as London, Edinburgh, York, Chester, Bath and Oxford also feature, to make this a tour that encompasses all that is truly wonderful in Britain.

Padstow, Cornwall – Day 5

A unique tour experience:

- * The tour group is not too large, [around 15-20 persons] and is personally led throughout.
- * The tour takes in several places off the regular tourist routes. These include some of the most delightful locations in Britain.
- * One key feature of the tour is the number of train trips through some of the most beautiful areas of England, Scotland and Wales.
- * Another feature is that several beautiful villages are visited. Several nights of the tour are actually spent in delightful village locations
- * The pace of the tour is a little easier than most tour schedules. On many days the sightseeing program does not start until 9.00 am or even later. This allows time for relaxation or some individual exploration depending on one's energy level.
- * The tour features several three night stops, thereby reducing the need to constantly repack luggage!
- * As the tour ends in London, it may be possible to spend additional time there.
